Professor of Medicine
Neurology
Obstetrics & Gynecology
Pathology Psychiatry

Position # 39220

The University of Central Florida College of Medicine is seeking applications from outstanding clinician-educators in Neurology, Obstetrics and Gynecology, Pathology, and Psychiatry at all ranks to serve as faculty on a team building this century's premier medical college. Faculty will collaborate in the development of the four year curriculum, the teaching of the practice of medicine, physical diagnosis, and organ-based systems modules, and development of innovative teaching technologies and simulations. Faculty will also be expected to spend a portion of time in clinical practice. Important concepts such as patient-centered and multidisciplinary care, preventive medicine, wellness, evidence-based medicine, palliative care, geriatrics and patient safety will be emphasized throughout the curriculum.

The College of Medicine aspires to become an extraordinary research-based institution training physicians of the future who will become exemplary physicians, leaders in medicine, scholars in science, innovators in medical technology and compassionate providers of health care. Preliminary accreditation has been granted and UCF's College of Medicine admitted its first class of 41 students in August of 2009. As part of the "Medical City" at Lake Nona which is currently under construction, just east of the Orlando International Airport, the College of Medicine takes residence on the UCF Health Sciences Campus among the Burnham Institute for Medical Research, Nemours Children's Hospital, M.D. Anderson Cancer Research Institute and the VA Medical Center Orlando.

Candidates must be board certified in an ABMS specialty and eligible for licensure or licensed to practice in the State of Florida. Applicants should have significant teaching and clinical experience, and evidence of teaching excellence. Experience as a course or clerkship director, residency or fellowship program director is beneficial.
