

Clinical Faculty Pegasus Health

Internal Medicine ~ Family Medicine
Primary Care ~ Endocrinology
Neurology ~ Pathology

Position #s 39324, 39243, 39244

The University of Central Florida, College of Medicine is seeking applications from outstanding clinician-educators in Internal Medicine, Family Medicine, Primary Care, Endocrinology, Neurology and Pathology at all ranks to serve as faculty on a team building this century's premier medical college. Faculty will collaborate in the design and implementation of the four year curriculum, the teaching of the practice of medicine, physical diagnosis, and organ-based systems modules, and development of innovative teaching technologies and simulations. Important concepts such as patient-centered and multidisciplinary care, preventive medicine, wellness, evidence-based medicine, palliative care, geriatrics and patient safety will be emphasized throughout the curriculum. Faculty will also be expected to spend a portion of time in our developing clinical practice or other community practice opportunities.

UCF has grown to be the nation's fourth-largest university and has demonstrated excellence in technology, science, and simulation. The College of Medicine has received preliminary accreditation by the LCME and admitted its charter class on August 3, 2009. The college will educate individuals to become exemplary physicians, leaders in medicine, scholars in science, innovators in medical technology and compassionate providers of health care.

Candidates must be board certified in an ABMS specialty; the exception is physicians who have just completed training in the last 2-5 years (length of time depends on specialty). Candidates must be eligible for licensure or licensed to practice in the State of Florida. Applicants should be exceptional clinicians who wish to practice, while spending a portion of their time conducting research or teaching medical students. Successful candidates will be founding clinicians in the College's faculty practice clinic, Pegasus Health.
